Dear Mr. Bucy:

I take great personal pleasure in extending my thanks to you for arranging the fine program for our Executive Development Seminar. The participants asked that I make special note of their appreciation for the time you took to greet them after an unexpected commitment precluded your participation in the program itself. Please pass along my appreciation to Messrs. Norman P. Neureiter, James A. Dukowitz and David Gould for providing our officers with a candid and wide-ranging discussion of the key issues and strategies involved in the operation of your company.

Sincerely,
